W. L. Garrison, Esq
Dear Sir

As I have taken the liberty of requesting the printer to send you the "proof" of the closing chapter for suggestions &c. it has occurred to me that you might not be unwilling to see how the relation of the churches to the "irrepressible conflict" has been treated in the history. I am true to send, therefore by this mail the "error" of the chapter on "The Churches and Religious Associations." It is a sad story but we have tried to make it truthful, as one chapter of the great struggle

Very respectfully
Samuel May

P.S. After reading you may throw into the waste basket, as I have no further use for it.

S. M.
